SERVING GOD IN ITALY

Ciao!

I live in Rome. It's a city that was once called Caput Mundi, the capital of the world, and where the apostle Paul was put in jail for speaking about Jesus' resurrection. Today it's a very hectic city to live in but full of amazing historical ruins, great pasta, and beautiful church buildings. I work with university students to help them understand who Jesus is and investigate what the Bible says about God and humans. Sadly, for a city full of church buildings, not many young people know Jesus personally.

ALL YEAR PRAYER

Thank God that I can meet with students to investigate from the Bible who Jesus is.

Ask God that during the summer holiday kids' camps that kids and teenagers would come to know Jesus.

PRAY PROMPTS
