SERVING GOD IN FRANCE

Hello

I am serving in France – a country known for its delicious pastry and cheese! Although Christianity was part of France’s culture for many centuries, it is now no longer the case. Only a tiny amount of French people go to a Bible-believing church (just over 1%)! I will be serving with a university ministry called GBU, sharing about Jesus with students. At the start I will focus on language and culture learning.

ALL YEAR PRAYER

Thank God for the work of the GBU in telling university students about Christ’s love.

Ask God that I will be faithful with my language learning so that I can develop friendships.
