SERVING GOD IN UGANDA

Hello

Agandi—this is ‘how are you?’ in the Ruyankore language. We live in Rukungiri, a town in South West Uganda. Our town is up in the hills and it never gets too hot or too cold. People here eat roasted grasshoppers, called esenene. Ugandans love to play soccer. At one match there were hippopotami and buffalo watching the match too! We’re teaching at a Bible college. We’re on a team that trains church leaders to teach the Bible and know Jesus better.

ALL YEAR PRAYER

Thank God that our little local church keeps on growing.

Ask God that African Christians can be bold in speaking about their faith.
