SERVING GOD IN JAPAN

Hello

I live in Kobe, a city in western Japan that sits between the mountains and the sea. This means we usually get a lovely breeze in the humid summer, but also the wind is very cold in winter. I don't have a car but that's OK because the trains and buses come often and are very safe, even late at night. I work with university students, helping them to understand the Bible and share Jesus with their friends.

ALL YEAR PRAYER

Thank God that I can read the Bible with students and encourage them to follow Jesus.

Ask God that more Japanese students will come to know Jesus.
