SERVING GOD IN ITALY

Ciao!

I live in Rome. You may have heard of Rome in the Bible—it's where the apostle Paul was put in jail for telling people that Jesus rose from the dead. Today, it's a very busy city and full of amazing historical ruins, great pasta, and beautiful church buildings. Sadly, even though there are many church buildings, not many young people in Rome know Jesus. I work with university students to help them meet Jesus in the Bible, and encourage Christians to live for him.

ALL YEAR PRAYER

Thank God that I can meet with students to share Jesus with them.

Ask God for many young people in Rome to know Jesus and share his love with those around them.
